Correction on name of new laundromat

In the December 6 issue of The Falmouth Outlook we printed a Letter to the Editor that praised the Miller Family for remodeling an old building and opening a much needed laundromat in Falmouth. The article listed the wrong name for the laundromat. The correct name for the new laundromat is Early Bird Laundromat.

Correction on Butler fire

In the December 6 issue of The Falmouth Outlook we reported on a story about a house fire in Butler. In that article we said Sharita Morgan, her husband, and her daughter escaped the fire. The information on the people living there should have said, Sharita Morgan, a friend, not her husband, and her daughter.

Wesleyan youth group cleans roadway

Dear Editor,
Falmouth Wesleyan Church youth group was given the privilege of picking up trash on October 22, 2011. Twelve of our young people delighted themselves in helping our community. It was frustrating to see 23 bags of trash collected in the four and a half miles we walked on Route 22. However, we were happy to be good stewards for our community.

Tarhe cleans Highway 27 South

Dear Editor,
Tarhe Sports and Learning Center was proud to be a part of the 109 Board Fall Road Cleanup on Saturday, November 5. We had 16 people participate, and collected 42 bags of garbage on five miles of U.S. 27 South up to the Harrison County line. It seems the majority of the items we found were tobacco related, beer and alcohol bottles and cans, and fast food bags and cups. These are three (or four, if you count littering) bad habits the residents of Pendleton County would be better off without. One of our students was really surprised about how much litter there was along the roads, and thinks people should know better. Let's take a little more pride in ourselves and our environment.

Young Riders cleans local roadway

Dear Editor,
The Pendleton County Young Riders Participated in the fall road cleanup this year by picking up trash along five miles of Highway 27 from 22 West to Punkytown. We collected 46 bags of trash along this stretch, with the area between Falmouth and Pendleton County High School being the worst section.

One of the teams along that section ran out of bags and had to call for re-enforcements! In Falmouth itself we found very little trash. Way to go Falmouth! The only item of interest we found was a Harrison County School class ring, which has been taken to the school for return to its owner.

Floyd Hughes, president of rotary, 1972-1973

By: Mrs. Cheryl York
Edited by Owen and Janice Collins

Floyd Hughes was president of the Falmouth Rotary in 1972-73. He was born in Whitley County, Kentucky in 1925, and grew up during the depression. He was a veteran of World War II serving in the European Theater. Upon returning from the war, he met and married the love of his life, Erma Huston of Bracken County, Kentucky. They were married for 47 years until his death in 1994, at age 69. Floyd and Erma had one child, Cheryl, who is married to Delbert York and is now retired from a 32-year career of teaching in the Pendleton County and old Falmouth Independent School Systems.

As a young husband, Floyd tried his hand at farming and factory work, but found he had a talent and a passion for the insurance business and that became his life's work. He had a genuine love and respect for people and truly enjoyed interacting with them. In addition, he had a natural bent for numbers and a head for details. The combination made him very successful at what he did. He was tenacious in interceding for his clients with the insurance company to make sure the client received every benefit to which they were entitled. He believed people's insurance was so important that he would sometimes pay clients' premiums until they could get back on their feet. They would either pay him back or barter something in exchange. He was well-known and mostly well-liked in the community. He worked for the same company, Lincoln Income Life Insurance, for thirty-one years until ill health forced him into disability. He was also passionate about his church. He was a long time member and deacon of Falmouth Baptist Church and also served the church in other capacities such as usher and trustee. He was also active in Sunday School and local missions as well as a forceful advocate for temperance in the local wet/dry elections. This was a cause that did not make him popular with many folks, but he felt very strongly about this issue, because he had seen so many lives ruined by alcohol. His favorite hobby, which he and his wife shared, was collecting antiques. Most weekends they could be found out traveling the by-ways "antiquing" with friends. He would often refinish or restore them. He had hoped to open an antique shop when he retired, but ill health prevented him from achieving that goal. Floyd and Erma also shared a love of traveling in the United States and enjoyed many vacations together.

He very much enjoyed Rotary Club meetings at the Stop and Tell Restaurant. In fact, he and Dan Woodhead had such fondness for Imogene's fried chicken livers that once they convinced her she should serve them at the weekly Rotary luncheon about every six weeks, telling her everyone loved them. Imagine Imogene's surprise when Lawrence Colvin (then president) asked her not to serve them so often because hardly anyone liked them! Floyd and Dan had a good laugh over their little joke, but they knew the jig was up!

Floyd had a very positive and optimistic attitude toward life. Of all the services Rotary Club provided to the community, the Scholarship Program was probably the closest to his heart. He believed education and hard work were the ingredients of success, and wanted deserving young persons rewarded for their hard work and determination to get a higher education. Another aspect of Rotary Club that he and Erma both enjoyed immensely was the annual Christmas party. They always came home laughing about all the "stealing" that went on at the gift exchange!

Pendleton High school Ladycats balanced attack rips

The Ladycats opponents have a dilemma based upon the Ladycats rout of Paris 70-32.

Do you guard Bradi Boden who has led the Ladycats in scoring in every game this season, with 11 made three pointers in five games and is playing confident and quick while averaging 15 points per game? Against Paris, she had 12 points and 10 rebounds for her first career double-double along with four assists, two steals, an zero turnovers. A great full stat line.

Do you guard the tower in the middle, Heather Jolley, who will physically be overwhelming to almost every opponent who tries to guard her? She is just shy of averaging a double-double with 9.8 ppg and 10.4 rpg. Against Paris, she powered her way to nine points and 14 rebounds despite being double and triple teamed.

Do you guard power forward Taylor McClanahan who attacks the basket with a frenzy and had 11 points and seven rebounds with five being off the offensive boards against Paris. The Lady Hounds tried a sagging defense designed to take the Cats inside attack away?

But if you double and triple team Heather and Taylor, then you leave one of the Ladycats' shooters open as Paris did. Result: eight made three pointers by five different players, Kristen 3, Manor 2, Wolfe 1, Hall 1 and Boden 1.

Do you pressure the Ladycats' point guard duo of Ashten Wolfe and Isabella Hall and try to disrupt the Ladycats offense? Ashten is shooting over 50 percent from two point range and 70 percent from the free throw line and is third on the team in scoring. Against Paris, Ashten scored 11 points but also had seven assists with six rebounds and two steals.

Her backcourt mate is a freshmen but has been handling the ball against quick and physical pressure. Isabella is shooting 44 percent from the three point line and leading the Ladycats in minutes played. Against Paris, she was 1-2 from behind the arc, grabbed three rebounds, dished out a couple of assists, stole two passes, and had one turnover in 20 minutes of action.

Or do you prepare for the bench that includes McKayla Manor, who has seven made three pointers in five games and had eight points against Paris? Or Senior Kristen Smith who in her second game back nailed three, three pointers for her first points of the season against Paris? Or freshmen Bailey Wanstrath, that has been a pleasant surprise with games of six, eight, and seven points despite only averaging eight minutes per game?

Or is it the Cats' defense that held Paris to just three points in the opening stanza and then six in the final one. A matchup zone that is learning to identify shooters and if they attempt to penetrate, funnels them to Jolley who is averaging just under two blocked shots per game. Paris' Alexis Tye scored 43 points in an earlier game this season vs Eminence. Against the Ladycats, their defense bottled her up and forced her into many difficult shots, fall-away jumpers or turnovers on her way to shooting three of 24 from the field and 12 inconsequential points.

Ladycats: Wolfe 4, 2, 11, Hall 1, 0, 3, Boden 4, 3, 12, McClanahan 5, 1, 11, Jolley 4, 1, 9, Manor 3, 0, 8, Smith 3, 0, 9, Wanstrath 3, 1, 7, Totals 27, 8, 70. Pendleton 18, 11, 17, 24, 70. Paris 3, 13, 10, 6, 32.

The JV Cats picked up their first victory of the season as they held Paris to just two first half points with a suffocating press that didn't give Paris many good looks at the basket. They won 34-12. Bailey Wanstrath had 11 points but made some nice passes to open teammates for easy baskets. Sydney Utz was the beneficiary of a couple of those passes as she had seven points. McKayla Manor chipped in eight points in limited play. Jennifer Dixon hit her first three point bomb of the season.

Ladycats: Manor 3, 2, 8, Wanstrath 4, 3, 11, Meadows 0, 1, 1, Blackaby 1, 0, 2, Utz 2, 3, 7, Nuckels 1, 0, 2, Dixon 1, 0, 3. Totals 12, 9, 34. Pendleton 4, 12, 6, 12, 34. Paris 2, 0, 8, 2, 12.

The Ladycats travel to Bourbon County after Christmas to play in the Bourbon County Holiday Classic on the 28. They play Lexington power Lafayette at 4:30 p.m. to start the tournament. On the 29, they have a doubleheader. First they play host, Bourbon County at 10:30 a.m. and follow up with Bracken Countian, Marla Kelsch's Monticello team 3:30 p.m. The last game on the 30 will be determined by their record over the previous two days.

Ethan Moore shoots a free throw for the Wildcats. He scored in double figures in his team's victory last Tuesday, December 13.

Pendleton High Wildcats improve to winning streak

By Bruce Reller, Jr. Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats improved to 6-1 on the season as they won three games last week, including two games at home. The Wildcats are currently on a six-game winning streak.

The Wildcats first took on Beechwood last Tuesday, December 13. Pendleton took control of the game in the second half and defeated the Tigers 60-48.

The Wildcats led by just four points at halftime. The lead was nine at the end of three and Pendleton County increased their lead in the fourth quarter. Beechwood whittled it down to six a few times, but the Wildcats made some free throws to secure the victory.

Junior Mason Monroe scored 27 points for the Wildcats. He was 11 for 13 at the free throw line, including four for four in the final quarter. The team only missed one free throw in the fourth quarter.

Wildcats: Rering 2, 1, 5, Monroe 8, 11, 27, G. Antrobus 4, 0, 10, Moore 5, 1, 11, Appleman 0, 1, 1, Gibson 0, 2, 2, A. Antrobus 1, 2, 4. Totals 20, 18, 60. Three pointers: G. Antrobus 2. Wildcats 17, 15, 12, 16, 60 and Beechwood 16, 12, 7, 13, 48.

The Wildcats returned home to play district opponent Nicholas County last Thursday, December 15. Pendleton County took control early and never looked back in an 88-48 victory.

Senior Gabe Antrobus led the way for the Wildcats with 19 points, including four three-pointers, all coming in the second quarter.

"Gabe shot well from the three. He dove for a loose ball and took a charge," Pendleton County head coach Chad Simms said. "If you let that three find you, they will start falling. He did a good job last night."

Wildcats: Rering 3, 0, 6, Monroe 7, 0, 14, G. Antrobus 7, 1, 19, Moore 2, 1, 6, Appleman 2, 2, 6, Gibson 1, 2, 4, Singleton 3, 0, 8, Pyles 4, 2, 13, A. Antrobus 2, 0, 4, Colvin 1, 2, 5, Pugh 1, 0, 2, Steele 0, 1, 1. Totals 33, 11, 88. Three pointers: G. Antrobus 4, Pyles 3, Singleton 2, Moore, Colvin. Wildcats 20, 25, 25, 18, 88 and Nicholas County 7, 15, 13, 13, 48. Pendleton County finished off the week on the road as they faced Cooper High School last Friday, December 16. The Wildcats played good defense and were victorious by a score of 55-42.

"It was our best defensively played game all year. We didn't get our average (70 points a game), but it was a credit to our defensive effort," Simms said. "I'm proud of our defense."

Wildcats: Rering 1, 0, 2, Monroe 9, 6, 24, G. Antrobus 1, 1, 3, Moore 3, 0, 6, Appleman 0, 4, 4, Singleton 2, 0, 5, A. Antrobus 4, 2, 10. Totals 20, 13, 55. Three pointers: Singleton. Wildcats 20, 8, 14, 13, 55 and Cooper 9, 11, 16, 6, 52.

Coach Simms gives all the credit to his kids this season.

Wildcat senior Jared Rering goes up for a shot over a Beechwood defender last Tuesday, December 13.

They've been working hard and have been able to compete with teams like Scott, Covington Catholic, and Beechwood so far.

"We've played teams that have pressed us, slowed us down, and ran with us," Simms said. "Our schedule has been fitting. By late-February, we will be prepared for the tournament." Simms continued, "We still have Henry Clay and Lexington Catholic. It's not going to be easy. We have room for improvement."

The Wildcats will continue their run this week in the Hooping It Up Tournament in Oldham County this week. They began last night, and the tournament will continue through Thursday.

Merry Christmas!!

Blanket Creek Baptist

Pray for the sick: Regina Gregg, Carol Mains, LW and Renee Bruin, Jody Powell family, Fred Brack and the families of Danny Fredrick and Lucille Klee.

The Christmas program directed by Michelle Monroe will take place at 7 p.m. on December 18. Christmas service will be held from 11 a.m. to noon on December 25.

Todays message: Exodus 12 (verse 12).

Christ is the ultimate sacrifice for our sins. Be ye ready to go for the coming of the Lord. "I will give judgement on that day for I am Lord. I will bless you if you receive me, believe me, and trust me." The Lords Supper was observed. Deacons Tommy Whitaker, John Carr, and Rick McClanahan served the congregation, Brother Joe prayed, Michelle Monroe played softly on the organ.

This is the most sacred event in churches everywhere. Merry Christmas and God Bless.

Butler Baptist

The Christmas season brings a focus on the importance of the family. Sunday evening we held the third annual family ornament and prayer service. The service was created to highlight the importance of the family during the year.

Families made ornaments to represent their family. After a few hymns, each family was called to place their ornament on a small tree in the church windows. The congregation lifted each family up in silent prayer as they came forward. After a closing prayer and hymn, the congregation joined hands around the sanctuary and sang, "Bless be the Ties that Bind."

Bringing your family to church this Christmas season and all year long. Don't forget the Christmas caroling on December 21, Christmas Day service and Sunday school. December 27 is family night.

Falmouth Baptist

Merry CHRISTmas from the Falmouth Baptist Church! We were thrilled to have Bob Morgan visiting with us Sunday. He blessed us by singing "Oh Holy Night" which he's been singing here since he was 8. It was wonderful to have Bob home for the holiday.

Bro. Cohen's message was about the Joy of Giving. We must help the weak. It is more blessed to give than to receive. The joy in giving to those in need brings fulfillment. We are commanded to give forgiveness, and that means forgiving ourselves as well. The joy of giving comes from knowing you did the right thing. We need to give ourselves fully to God!

Our candlelight Christmas Eve is at 9 p.m. We hope you can join us. We also invite you to join us for a community prayer service at 7 p.m. on Sunday, January

1 Lets start the New Year off right.

Falmouth Christian

On December 11, the FCC Choir opened the morning service with the hymn, "The Little Drummer Boy." Brother Clay Sullivan preached the sermon, "Christmas Is Coming To Town" from Luke 1:26-38.

Names mentioned for prayer list were the Family of Jenna Crawford, L.W. and Lorraine Bruin, Marty Hart, Marietta Wilson, Josh Cole, Michelle Caldwell, Jennie Cox, Brianna Wood, Wanda Gosney, Gracee Hutchison, and Kaelyn Adams.

Christmas Eve service will be at 7 p.m. on Saturday December 24, 2011. We will be having a children's program followed by the Christmas Story and lighting of the Christ Candle.

At 6 p.m. on Saturday December 31, 2011, Kenny Speakes will be here for the New Year's Eve program. Light refreshments will be served after the program.

Worship with us at 9:30 a.m. Sunday school and 10:45 a.m. Worship service this Sunday.

Falmouth United Methodist

From our church to your hearts, we wish you a very merry Christmas. Remember to keep Christ in Christmas, He is the Reason for the Season.

Sunday the 18 was a very entertaining and meaningful celebration. Members directed by Courtney put on their Christmas play and we enjoyed the Moravian Love Feast as part of the worship service. Thanks to all who helped.

Many thanks to the men for bringing Santa all the way down from the North Pole to greet and meet the children last Saturday.

Come and join us at 7 p.m. on Saturday evening for the Christmas Eve service.

Please remember the Monroe family, those who lost their homes in the fires recently, our volunteers, Rich Maxedon, Barb's mom, Betty Bierman, Donnie's niece, Ohna Adams, Anna, Frank, Courtney, Gene and Donna Hise, and all those who are having a tough time this Christmas.

Please join us for our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day services. Merry Christmas.

Falmouth Wesleyan

Santa Claus is actually based on the early Church Bishop Saint Nicholas. He was born during the third century (around 270 A.D.), in the village of Patara, in Turkey, and was known for secretly giving gifts of money to the poor. The modern image of him as a jolly man in red most comes from the 1823 poem "A visit from St Nicholas" also known as "The Night before Christmas" written by Clement Clarke Moore.

The parallels between the real Saint Nicholas and Christ are easy to notice. Saint Nicholas gave gifts to the poor. Jesus gave his entire life for those who are in need, all of mankind! Jesus said, "Why does he that is whole need a physician?" Let us find at least one person actually in need this Christmas and extend a gift to them, instead of only focusing upon those who already have all of their necessities. This is what Saint Nicholas and Jesus Christ did!

First Baptist

Blessings! On this third Sunday of Advent, Adarin Williams blessed us by singing "O Holy Nite" and "Beautiful Star of Bethlehem."

After the lighting of the Joy Candle, Bro. Harry brought us his message from Luke. There is a big difference between happiness and joy. Material things bring us happiness. Joy comes from God when He is in our hearts. If you show joy to others, then they will see Jesus' love in you heart. Prayer brings you closer to God, leaving you with everlasting JOY!

Several names were added to our prayer list. Pray for the lost, the sick, and those who have lost loved one. Pray for our military and missionaries, who will be spending this most Holy of holidays away from home and family

Harvest Community

Bro. Dale's morning message was based on the scripture text of Matthew 16:13-16, "The real Jesus." Who is Jesus to you? Is he your Lord and Savior? Is he your promise of eternal life? He is the Prince of Peace, the King of Kings, the Bread of Life, the Alpha and Omega!

The observance of lighting the third Advent candle was done by Mike and Sandy Godman, honoring the Shepherds.

We invite you to our Christmas Eve candlelight service, 111 E. Shelby street 9 p.m. Join us for a time of celebration. Our Christmas morning service will be the regular times; 9:30 a.m. Bible study and 10:30 a.m. Worship service. Come celebrate the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer concerns go out to Regina Gregg, Brandi Kinman, Jacob Feltner, Wendy Lusty, and Rich Maxedon. Deepest sympathy to the families of Danny Fredrick and Diana Monroe.

Morgan Christian

Congratulations to the Godmans on the birth of Brook Godman who weighed 8 lbs and 15 oz and was born in Lexington on December 9.

Through Advent we had Buddie and Connie Hannah, Steve and Dawn Wood, Sarah and Jason Mann, and Jeanie Trapp light our Advent wreath and bring thoughts on hope, peace, joy, and love. Kelly Maxedon and Steve Work sang "Do You Hear What I Hear?" on our potluck Sunday. We were especially blessed when Brianna Wood and her family visited for our service on December 11. She received a standing ovation! We also enjoyed having Dillon Moore and Patricia Ghearing as first time guests over the last couple Sundays.

Thanks to Estille for getting the light in our parking lot added. We at Morgan would like to add an additional special prayer to all of our service men and service women all over the world this Christmas season.

Mount Moriah

We have lit the candles of hope, peace, and joy. Today we lit the candle of love for the fourth Sunday of Advent.

To love is to have a deep affection or devotion for another person. Because of God's love to mankind He sent Jesus Christ to show us perfect love. John 3:16 tells us this. Romans 5:8 says that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us! Wow! What sacrificial love!

1 John 3:1 says we should behold and see what manner of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God! Also, in Jeremiah 31:3 Almighty God tells us He has loved us with an everlasting love. It never stops, never fails, shows no partiality! God loves us so very much! Do you have Him in your heart, in your life? This Christmas nothing can compare to the love of our Heavenly Father! Merry Christmas!

New Hope of Christ

Jesus entered into this world and was placed in a wooden manger. This world welcomed Him by giving Him a birth among the dirty animals. He did not have a proper bed but He did not complain. It was love that sent Him to that wooden manger.

Jesus left this world on a wooden cross. This world tried to force Him out on the brutal cross. He did not have a proper burial; instead it was rushed. He did not complain. It was love that sent Him to that cross. We complain so much about what God has asked us to do. When we examine what Christ did for us, there should be nothing that we are unwilling to do for Him.

New Zion Baptist

Come join us for Worship and Christian fellowship. Sunday School starts at 10 a.m., morning Worship at 11 a.m. and evening Worship at 6:30 p.m. We also have Bible study at 8 p.m. on Thursdays. If the weather seems bad tune in to Channel 12 to check for closure or delays.

On Christmas day we will have a Special Christmas Service at 11 a.m., there will not be Sunday school or evening Worship Service. II Corinthians 9:15 - "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift."

Please remember in prayer Regina Greg, Sally Hutchinson, Tina Cochran, Billy Norris, Diana Monroe, Phyllis Wolf, Hollyn Price, and the Powell family. Many of our men and women in uniform are far from home and their families this Christmas season, so please keep them and their families in your prayers.

Oakland Christian

Once again, the Lord is blessing us with some decent weather. The message of the hour was "Joy Like a Fountain" reminding us that many people are not joyous at this time of the year, so it is our responsibility as Christians to brighten their Christmas!

On Christmas Day and New Year's Day, we will have only one service at 10:30 a.m. There will be no Sunday school or evening worship.

Our sympathy to the families of Danny Frederick, Carroll Meenach, Donald Conrad, Lucille Klee, Ross Ashley, and Derick Crouse (the two VA Tech victims).

Prayer concerns include Diana Monroe, Steven Cummins, Sally Hutchison, Brianna Wood, Joy Thomas, Richard Groneck, Elmo McKinney, Regina Gregg, Ronnie Honan, Jerry Bruin, Dorothy and Bob Bertram, Eudell Hall, Ronnie King, Shawna McKenney, Susie Blevins, Margaret McCann, our shut-ins, our armed forces, and our leaders.

Roanoke Christian

Bro. Don's message Sunday from Luke chapter 1, vs 25-35. If God had asked any of us to be the care taker of his son, Jesus, how would we have felt? Would we have felt honored or blessed? Would we think we deserve special treatment for doing this, or think God owed us something? Mary didn't feel as if she was owed anything, after all she settled for a stable, instead of a bed. Jesus did not come to earth to be served but to serve; we should strive to be more like that.

As we enter into this special time of year, please remember those who have lost family members this year, those who are ill, and those who are experiencing a difficult time in their life in your prayers and thoughts.

Come and join us at 11 a.m. each Sunday for Worship and 10 a.m. for Sunday school.

Short Creek

Youth meetings at 5 p.m. on Sundays. RA's and GA's (grades first through fifth) at 6 p.m. on Sundays. Children's Bible Study at 7 p.m. on Wednesday. Christmas Eve service will be held at 7 p.m. on December 24. Christmas day service is at 11 a.m. on December 25. Roller skating is December 31.

On Sunday, December 11, Bro. Brad's message was "Christmas - A Baby, A Cross and Heaven."

Philippians 3:20

For our citizenship is in heaven, from which we also eagerly wait for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.

On Christmas, by tradition, children know it's time for Santa's return from the North Pole to distribute gifts. As Christians, do we seek or count down the days for Christ's return? Do we tell the world about God's gift of salvation that he gave us?

The great thing about God's gift is that it's free. You don't have to earn it. You just have to accept his son Jesus Christ into your heart. Jesus already paid the price for all, by His death on the cross in our place. If you are a true believer, eternal life in Heaven will be yours. Accept Him today. This will be the greatest gift you will ever receive in you lifetime. We pray that you put Christ first everyday and during this giving season.

Southside of Christ

Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census be taken of the entire Roman world. Everyone went to his own town to register. Joseph went up from Nazareth to Bethlehem, the town of David. He went with Mary who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While there the baby was born. She wrapped him in clothes and placed him in a manger, there was no room in the inn. Shepherds were living in nearby fields, watching over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, the glory of the Lord shone around them and they were terrified. The angel said, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. (Luke 2)

Trinity Baptist

There's a song in the air! We were so blessed to have Christopher Hefner in the pulpit this past Sunday while visiting with his parents. His message was taken from Habakkuk 3 and well delivered. It was also a pleasure to have his wife, Jean and their son, Will, visiting along with him.

The choir gave us a preview of the cantata, "A Song In The Air." They have been working on it for past several weeks. We look forward to that presentation.

We are also making preparations for our Candlelight Services at 9p.m. on Christmas Eve. Everyone and their families are invited. As you ready yourselves for the Christmas holidays, remember Christmas points us to the cross. Remember those on our prayer list in your prayers and pray for each other. Merry Christmas!

Turner Ridge Baptist

Sunday, December 11, Bro. Dale's message was "Exceeding Joy" with scripture from 1 Peter: 4:12-13. Morgan Sorrell read Scripture from 1 Peter:1:6-8.

The third lighting of the "Advent candle of joy" was by the Jennifer Duncan Family.

Children's message was "Message in a Bottle" by uncle Dale. Then telling them a story about Lottie Moon and the international money that goes overseas and they could put something about Jesus in the bottle too.

Fern Jenkins read a poem to all of us. Jim Tomlinson sang "Ordinary Baby." Choir special was "Let There Be Joy in This Place." Evening service was Christmas Cantata and Handbell special.

New friends were added to our prayer list. We extend our sympathy to families of Sarah Laycock, Donald Conrad, and Lucille Klee. Shut-In: Tommy Miller, 2740 Gratz Road., Owenton.

If you do not have a church home, we invite you to come join us. We have a lot of activities going on.

Safety when using a chainsaw

Before you get that chainsaw out, you might want to ponder this: Every year, about 36,000 people are taken to the emergency room for chainsaw-related injuries, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

The chainsaw has been called one of the most dangerous tools, mostly because of its power. Besides, anything that can cut through wood can certainly cut through a person's skin and serious cuts from chainsaws are common.

To reduce the risk of a chainsaw injury, keep these important safety guidelines in mind:

Make sure you choose a chainsaw that includes safety features, including a chain brake, front and rear hand guards, and a low-kickback chain. Also choose the proper size chainsaw to match the job. Most stores that specialize in chainsaw and outdoor equipment sales can help you with these decisions.

Read and follow the manufacturer's instructions.

Check to see that all parts are present and in good working order, and check the saw chain for proper tension and sharpness. Also be sure the chain is well-lubricated.

Always start a chainsaw with the saw on the ground, with one hand firmly on the handle. Never hold the chainsaw in the air with one hand while pulling

Physical activity guides for youth

Children's activity levels have dropped in recent decades through a number of factors, among them, cultural shifts in the way parents and supervisors address issues of child safety and supervision, differences in built and outdoor environments, to an increase in screen time.

The days of neighborhood kids safely playing kick-the-can in bucolic suburbs have given way to supervised meetings and organized activity, increased school hours with less physical activity built into the day, and greater use of electronic media. Parents should be aware of the recommendations for increased physical activity for youth, since youth regularly don't meet suggested daily activity levels. Monitoring and changing these sedentary habits are critical because of the tremendous health threats from childhood obesity and diabetes. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, children (ages six to seventeen) should get 60 minutes of exercise every day, and that should be an age-appropriate combination of aerobic, muscle strengthening, and bone strengthening activity.

Walking home from school, biking to the playground, playing kickball, or just plain playing has been supplanted by organized play dates that often include television, cell phone, mobile devices, computers, Wii, social networking, and gaming. Even in small increments, the increased total hours children spend parked in a chair rather than exercising can contribute to health problems now and later in life.

Parents face considerable obstacles in ensuring their kids get enough exercise, especially during winter months. Early nightfall means that kids can't play outside as much as they do during the summer, but winter does offer a host of opportunities that can be enjoyed. Keep in

Alternative cleaning supplies

When cleaning your home, consider using alternatives to some traditional commercial products that might contain hazardous or toxic chemicals.

You probably already have on hand such items as lemon juice, vinegar, baking soda, salt, ammonia, liquid chlorine bleach, and borax. These are the basic ingredients for many alternative cleaners. Read the labels and use safety precautions when mixing and using any home cleaning recipes and commercial products. For example, never combine ammonia and chlorine bleach, as this mixture produces toxic fumes.

Below are some examples of using relatively toxic-free alternatives in the home.

To freshen air in your home, sprinkle baking soda or put activated charcoal in odor-producing areas. Put an open box of baking soda in the refrigerator to absorb food odors. Grind leftover lemon or orange peels to freshen the garbage disposal. Clean bathrooms by scrubbing with washing soda or borax.

To remove mildew or other stains from grout, apply a mixture of one-half cup of chlorine bleach and one cup of water to the surface; let this stand for five minutes and rinse with clear water. For a ceramic tile cleaner, mix two tablespoons of trisodium phosphate (TSP) in a gallon of water; apply this to tile and grout with a brush or cloth. It's not necessary to rinse.

TSP is available at hardware stores or pharmacies.

CARD OF THANKS

Crawford/ Dunaway Thanks

Thank you from the family of Jenna Crawford. It is with heartfelt gratitude that we want to thank our family, friends, and neighbors for your unending support after the loss of our daughter, Jenna. Your expressions of love and encouragement through this difficult time will forever touch our lives. Honestly, words cannot express how grateful and how touched we have been these past few weeks. We are a very blessed family to have had Jenna and have you in our lives. With your generosity, Jenna will be helping children have a brighter Christmas every year just as she has done in the past. May God and the love for each other continue to help bring peace and keep Jenna's loving spirit alive. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you and God bless.

David and Paula Dunaway,

• Discussion of the merging of the Butler and the Falmouth Fire Departments. Former Butler Fire Chief, Randy Brossart, told the court that this would not happen because the dissolution of the independent corporation that governs the Butler firemen and he would never cast his ballot to eradicate the organization. 9/11

Department of Veteran's Affairs in Lexington.
The following are responses to James Bourne's presentation from students in Professor Sergeant's Global Viewpoint class:.
"I now know so much more about 9/11 than what I knew before. I never really realized that so many people gave their lives trying to save others. The speaker didn't just give us facts but because he was there he shared much more that we would have never known. I really enjoyed listening to him speak and I will now have a new view on 9/11." said Bekah Spence, a junior at PCHS
"My experience with Jimmy Bourne was one I will probably never forget. I learned so much that day, not through historical facts, but through heartbreaking emotion. As he was giving his presentation, you could tell he hadn't talked about it much before. It was an uncomfortable subject for him even to this day. When he told us how emotional it was to hear the sounds of people just crushing against the ground, my eyes were opened. When you think of 9/11, what comes to your mind? The victims? The ones who died? That's what I used to think about, until Jimmy came and spoke with us. Not only do I think of victims who suffered that day, but I now have a better understanding of the ones who risked their lives, people who still deal with the consequences from that tragic experience. They are the ones "who have to live with the survival guilt," as Bourne explained. He is one of many people who need to be thanked for risking his life that day," said Nikki Lovelace, a junior at PCHS
